A great book written by a relatively new face on the British Crime scene. This was promoted in my local library! I read this book quickly, it's an interesting and chilling plot with plenty of twists and turns, I'm a big fan of supporting English writers, and this book deserves some credit.

review 1: This book is so not like the books I usually read. If you are looking for a feel good, predictable lovey dovey romance type of story then chances are you might not enjoy this book. However, if you like a realistic well written mystery then do not hesitate to delve right in to this debut novel by a very talented author.
