The legendary Marvel characters have always tended to be more rounded and ‘human’ than many comic book creations, but in The Ultimates Millar really seems to have given us the ‘ultimate’, mature, adult approach to ‘what if all this really happened in our world’. Can’t recommend this book highly enough (or the other Ultimate series titles).

The Ultimates comes very highly recommended, from more than a few people. But for me, it was far from living up to the hype. The basic concept of the Ultimate ‘verse is to make the familiar Marvel heroes more “real” and “edgy”. In The Ultimates, Millar attempts to do that by making nearly every single character a complete jerk.

The Ultimates Omnibus is a little bit of heaven for anyone who enjoys the superhero genre. Miller’s writing on this series is a perfect mix of dialogue-centered character pieces and amazing “widescreen” battles. Hitch’s art gets better with every issue. What you have in this omnibus is two “seasons” of The Ultimates.
